Subject: Reinstatement to the NYPD after being dismissed for attempting to investigate

Kathy Abraham, former administrative assistant to former Senior Partner Lewis Eisenberg of Goldman Sachs reports sexual harassment and criminal activity at the firm including prostitution, narcotics and insider trading.

Gary Moskowitz, former NYC Police Officer reports this information to his Commanding Officer who orders that the Organized Crime Control Bureau (OCCB) be contacted for investigation.

Organized Crime Control Bureau stalls investigating the case and suddenly drops the case.

Abraham brings criminal complaint and $107million sexual harassment action against Lewis Eisenberg & Goldman detailing how Eisenberg tried to rape at her house with the intention of inflicting a venereal disease on her for punishing her for dating other men and not willing to have sex with other partners at Goldman Sachs.

PO Gary Moskowitz after being stalked by Eisenberg files criminal complaint against Eisenberg.

Eisenberg retaliates and files false charges to the Internal Affairs Bureau where Moskowitz was terminated

Moskowitz sued both the NYPD, Lewis Eisenberg and Goldman Sachs

Moskowitz has tapes, phone transcripts, court documents and photos which will be available to prove his innocence.

By comparison to the film, “Wolf of Wall Street” Belfort would be considered the “Puppy of Wall Street”.
